

Derek Bookstrom received his education at the University of Arizona. He has more than 20 years of experience in the underground utility business. Derek said, "I have previously served as NUCA of Nebraska President, and I would like to serve on the board again."